Town Council Meeting

Town Building Lots Still In Good Demand

The housing boom experienced in Vulcan this past year is likely to continue, judging from the continuing demand for building lots.

At the November meeting of the town council, the sale of nine lots was ratified. Of these, six have been built on this year. On the last three mentioned, construction will likely begin next spring. The lots sold are: Lot 8, Blk. 5, to Vulcan Municipal Hospital District, price $600; Lot 4, Blk. 5, to Glen Gorbous, $600; Lot 14, Blk. 1, to County of Vulcan, $600; Lot 11, Blk. 1, to Gordon Guimond, $400; Lot 13, Blk. 1, to H. H. Fox, $600; Lot 9, Blk. 1, to Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada, $400; Lot 12, Blk. 1, to P. G. Lucas, $600; Lot 18, Blk. 16, to Seno Degenstein, $200.

Building permits approved were to Roy McLennan for a 24x38 dwelling, estimated cost $8,000 and to United Grain Growers for a 6x24 addition to the garage at the UGG residence.

The rink committee was authorized to hire a caretaker for the winter season.

Mayor William Munro and Councillors Morrison, Emelson, Northcott, Richardson, Ness and Joiner were present at the meeting and Mayor Munro gave a resume of the recent convention at Edmonton of the Union of Alberta Municipalities.

Buehler-Fedoruk

Saturday, Nov. 1, was the scene of a pretty autumn wedding in the McDougall United Church, Edmonton. The church was decorated with white and yellow mums and a spray of candles when Margaret Fedoruk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Fedoruk of Warwick, became the bride of Henry Roy Buehler of Edmonton, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Buehler of Vulcan.

Escorted into the church by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of heavy satin, featuring a round neckline with ruffles and studded pearls, long lily-point sleeves and the skirt flaring out from the bodice. She wore a crown of pearls and a chapel length veil and carried a white lily overland with a cluster of rosebuds. Her pearl necklace was a gift of the groom.

The maid of honor, Mrs. Ruth Lupul, wore a brown brocade dress with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow tulle roses.

Bridesmaids Carol Cunningham, Janet Macdonald and Angelina Aronitz wore matching gowns of shrimp and cocoa brown in cocktail length with cocoa brown feathers in their hair and bouquets of yellow carnations.

Best men were Andy Fabbri, Al

Dorogay and Eddy Sticowski. Ushering the guests to their seats were Johnny Fedoruk and Percy Bell.

Following the ceremony a reception for 350 guests was held in the Worwick Community Hall.

The mother of the bride chose a blue brocade dress with navy blue accessories and pink sweetheart roses. The groom's mother wore a navy blue two piece dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

For her going away outfit the bride chose a brown wool sheath dress with matching accessories for a honeymoon trip to Great Falls. The young couple will make their home in Edmonton.

Thigh Hill W.I. Elects Officers

The Thigh Hill W.I. held their meeting Nov. 12, at the home of Mrs. Bruce White with 14 members and two visitors present.

A letter from the Canadian Cancer Society was tabled to a later date when it is hoped a film will be shown. A wreath was sent to the Memorial Day Service. Mrs. George Richardson gave a very interesting demonstration on the making of table mats.

The election of officers for 1959 followed: President, Mrs. E. Schmidt; vice-president, Mrs. S. Degenstein; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. S. White; directors, Mrs. F. Myers, Mrs. Deed and Mrs. M. Gortenberg; sick committee, Mrs. E. Erickson and Mrs. T. Houlton; program committee, Mrs. F. Gortenberg and Mrs. B. Ohler; rest room committee, Mrs. O. B. Roe; and library committee, Mrs. O. A. Craig.

Mrs. Ina Ohler won the tea draw. Mrs. G. Richardson became a member.

Mental Health Subject of Talk

A public meeting on "Mental Health," sponsored by the Canadian Mental Association in co-operation with District 12 FUA, was held recently in the IOOF Hall and proved to be very interesting and informative, although the attendance was disappointingly small.

William Miller of Calgary, executive director of the Mental Health Association, was the speaker. Mental illness is increasing every year, he said, and yet the general public shows little interest in this disease that affects one out of every four Canadians. Public apathy must be overcome so that greater strides may be taken in the rehabilitation of those who have been mentally ill and there must be a greater understanding of the disease itself, which can take so many forms.

The greatest mistake made, said the speaker, is the shunning of those who are not mentally stable

New Officers For Reid Hill Institute

The annual meeting of Reid Hill W.I. was held Thursday, Nov. 13, at the home of Mrs. E. G. McPherson, with sixteen members and two visitors present. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Clifford Love, who was assisted by the acting secretary, Mrs. Jack Marshall. Roll call was answered with, "What I Am Most Thankful For the Past Year."

Committee reports were received and showed that the recent bake sale and grocery hamper draw were most successful. The draw had been won by Mrs. G. Ness.

It was announced that Miss Reid, District Home Economist will be present at the December meeting, to demonstrate Christmas wrappings and decorations. Mrs. Messenger will be the hostess for this meeting, which will be held Friday, December 5, rather than the regular date. An exchange of gifts among the members will also be a part of the program.

During the reading of correspondence a letter from the Canadian Cancer Society was read and discussed. This letter was tabled until after the New Year, when an effort will be made to contact other women's organizations, with a view to sponsoring a talk and showing of film of particular interest to women.

At the conclusion of the regular business session the meeting was declared open for the election of officers for the coming year. The office of president and vice-president were filled by acclamation with Mrs. Earl Deal and Mrs. Ray Harold being named. Mrs. Fred Schuler was elected secretary and Mrs. A. Sales named treasurer. Directors are: Mrs. F. J. Messenger, Mrs. J. Smith, Mrs. W. A. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. P. Schuler. Standing committee conveners named were: Agriculture, Mrs. J. French; United Nations, Mrs. Frieda McRoberts; Handicrafts, Mrs. C. L. Kaykendall; Health and Education, Mrs. W. Frickelton; Publicity, Mrs. A. Sales; Home Economics, Mrs. R. Walker, and Citizenship, Mrs. A. McKay.

Birthday remembrances were presented to Mrs. Fred Schuler, Mrs. Pete Schuler and Mrs. Roy Adam. A hot lunch was served by Mrs. Frieda McRoberts and Mrs. Sales assisted by the hostess.

Food Prices Low In Depression

Part of a Calgary, Albertan, dated Oct. 20, 1936, was recently found by George Armstrong.

Front page news featured the Spanish civil war and Alberta's new Social Credit government was seeking new outlets for the short-lived "Prosperity Certificates."

Contrasting with present-day prices, food prices were low in the depression year of 1936, with pork chops at 24c a pound, bacon 24c a pound, pork shoulder 16c a pound, hamburger at 4 lbs. for 15c, sirloin and T-bone steaks at 2 pounds for 10c, butter 2 pounds for 51c, coffee 30c a pound, margarine and jam, 4-pound tin for 43c.

Bowling News

Prizes for high scores in men's and ladies' bowling last week were won by Jimmy Walker with 307 and Betty Hansell with 280.

At Statutory Meeting

Town Council Committees Appointed For Year

Committees for the ensuing year were appointed by Mayor William Munro at the statutory meeting of the Vulcan town council, held recently. There are three councillors on each committee, with the first-named councillor being chairman of that particular committee:

Finance—Morrison, Joiner and Emelson.

Public Works—Emelson, Ness and Morrison.

Waterworks—Joiner, Emelson and Northcott.

Fire and Police—Ness, Morrison and Richardson.

Rink—Richardson, Northcott and Joiner.

Parks, Cemetery and Relief—Northcott, Richardson and Ness.

Councillor Ed Emelson was appointed deputy mayor for the months of November, December and January.

Other business included the decision to sell 50-ft. lots in Block 16 (quit claimed by Paramount Construction) at the price of $200 per lot, and approval of North Star Oil's construction of a new bulk storage plant on CPR property between the CPR station and the Alberta Wheat Pool.

Pawel Sawicki Dies Suddenly

A veteran of six years' service with the Polish forces in World War II, Pawel Sawicki, aged 43, died suddenly in Vulcan, Monday morning. He had been an employee of the town public works department for the past eight years.

During the war years Mr. Sawicki was an infantryman with the Polish forces attached to the British Eighth Army, serving in North Africa and in Italy. He was commended for bravery in action and was a non-commissioned officer when he received his discharge.

He is survived by one brother in Poland.

Funeral services, directed by the Vulcan Funeral Home, will be held Thursday afternoon.

Enerson - Granlin Rites At Lethbridge

Bronze chrysanthemums and woodwardia ferns flanked by glowing candelabra formed the background for the 4 p.m. wedding service in Southminster United Church in Lethbridge recently.

The groom was attended by Stuart Henderson of Lethbridge. The ushers were Curtis Enerson, LaVerne Granlin, Kenneth Deas and David Seatchard.

For the reception for 180 guests which followed at the Lethbridge Flying Club, Mrs. Granlin chose a royal blue peau de soie sheath dress with matching accessories, complimented by a white orchid corsage. The mother of the groom wore a bronze lace sheath dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of green orchids. Johnston Smith proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom very fittingly replied.

Bowls of bronze and yellow mums and lighted candles graced the bridal table which was centered by a three-tiered wedding cake topped with tallman rosebuds. Fouring honors were shared by Mrs. W. C. Matlock and Mrs. Gerald Matlock of Champion, Mrs. A. V. Weatherup and Mrs. Wm. Robinson of Lethbridge. Mrs. Fred Cartwright was in charge of the guest book.

For travelling to Las Vegas and Chicago, the bride chose a traveling costume of green and blue wool plaid with matching accessories and a mink stole. She wore a white orchid corsage. Following their wedding trip the young couple will take up residence at 1215 8th Ave. S., Lethbridge.

The bride was attended by the matron-of-honor Mrs. LaVerne Granlin, her sister-in-law, Miss Mary Ewanson as bridesmaid and Miss Suzanne Smith and Miss Justine Smith, cousins of the bride, as junior bridesmaids. They were all gowned alike in moss green nylon dresses featuring a harem skirt with a large bow at the back. They wore matching shoes and mitts, and wore soft bows in their hair. They carried cascades of bronze mums. The flower girls, 1215 8th Ave. S., Lethbridge.

Following Mr. Miller's talk, two films were shown, dealing with the treatment and rehabilitation of the mentally ill.

Who Pays For Royalty?

What about writing an article (says a reader) about what it costs a new Canadian or would-be Canadian for the Royal Family? The Eastern Europeans where I work get excited about how much they pay in taxes to the U.K. to keep up the Royal Family. I don't think we pay anything; but I'm not sure, so I can't put up much of an argument. They sit around at lunch time talking about their money going out of the country.

Answer: No money goes out of Canada to keep up the Royal Family. Canadians are in the happy position of having a Queen of their own, at no cost to Canadians. The English do the paying.

It is also interesting that Canadians invented this system by which there is a group of countries — Canada, Australia, the United Kingdom, Ghana, South Africa, India, New Zealand, the West Indies Federation, the Malaya Federation, Pakistan and probably others by the time this gets printed — and all these countries are equal in authority and each one has a Queen. A hard thing to understand is that the Queen of each country happens to be the same person. Her Majesty, Elizabeth the Second, is Queen of each Commonwealth country. And the English pay.

Home and School Association
The Carmangay Home and School Association met Nov. 13, with a fair attendance including many High School students who had been invited to hear the speaker of the evening.

The report of the Halloween party showed it to be a success and thanks were extended to those who had helped with this annual event.

Mrs. Elnora Anderson introduced the speaker, C. Johnson, High School Inspector. Mr. Johnson dealt with the question of getting the most out of High School in a thorough and most interesting manner. He stressed the need for diligent and intelligent work on the part of the student and complete co-operation and understanding from the parents with adjustment of home conditions, to make home study most effective. The trend toward employment of more and more skilled and specialized personnel in industry and services necessitate a higher education.

The number and type of questions asked in the question period which followed showed the keen interest of those parents and students present in this vital topic and it was felt others who were not there had missed a most enlightening evening.

Following the program Mr. Johnson presented Brian Hubka with the Governor General's medal for highest marks in Grade nine in the County of Vulcan and a cheque and congratulatory letter from the county.

During the lunch period which followed, groups of students and parents could be seen questioning and discussing, following up their search for information on points raised by Mr. Johnson's talk.

ANDERSON — LOCK

A wedding of interest to their many friends in the district was solemnized at St. Augustine's Church in Lethbridge on Nov. 3. The church was decorated with baskets of large mums in fall colors when Kathleen Gillan Lock and Lloyd Allan Anderson pledged their vows before the candle-lit altar. The Rev. Robert H. Johnson, rector of Emmanuel Anglican Church, Carmangay, officiated at the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lock of Sandwich, England and the groom is the eldest son of Mrs. Lydia Anderson and the late Clarence Anderson of Carmangay.

Entering the church with James Lee, the bride wore a white brocade satin gown fashioned with bows, marking the low waistline above the hoop skirt that ended in a short train. The bodice featured a net yoke outlined with scrolls and sequins and a mandarin collar. Her embroidered net chapel veil was held in place by a dainty coronet. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses and carnations.

The maid of honor was Miss Joan Rogers and bridesmaids were Misses Janette Anderson and Anne Commoline. Their gowns were royal blue nylon chiffon with short full skirts and a draped bodice accented by a gathered panel at the back. They wore matching leather bandeaus and carried bouquets of bronze spray mums.

The groom was attended by John Parakin and the guests were ushered by Glen Anderson and Gordon Hildreth.

The wedding music and an organ solo during the signing of the register was played by Bruce G. Parrow.

The reception was at the Lotus Inn where Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Lee received the guests with the bridal party. For the occasion Mrs. Anderson wore a peacock blue afternoon dress with pink hat and accessories and a pink rose corsage, while Mrs. Lee chose a cinnamon rust afternoon dress with accessories to match and her corsage was yellow roses.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Lee and to the bridesmaids by Mr. Parakin. Telegrams were read from the bride's relatives and friends in England and Port Arthur, Ont.

The bridal couple entertained at a dance in the Community Hall at Carmangay in the evening.

After a wedding trip to Kimberly, B.C., and Banff, they will make their home at Carmangay where the bride is on the nursing staff at the hospital.

Imperial's 78 years of leadership has helped Canadians take for granted the reliability of oil and oil products

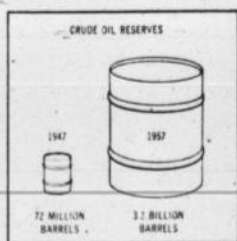

Reliability implies an adequate supply of the products you depend upon... when and where you need them, at reasonable prices.

Imperial has always been the leader in ensuring Canadians of an adequate supply of oil. Imperial's discovery of oil at Leduc, in 1947, opened the vast western oil fields.

The first oil company to supply consumer needs in all Canada's provinces, Imperial has nine refineries from Halifax to Vancouver (and in the Northwest Territories) to meet the local needs of Canadians.

Imperial has always been the leader, too, in a highly competitive industry which must seek... by broadening markets and increasing efficiency... to keep prices down. Over the past ten years, while prices of things in general have risen 134%, regular gasoline has gone up only 11%.

Since Leduc, Canadian crude oil reserves have increased 45 times.

FURNITURE IS MY LINE

By Bruce Morgan
A Weekly Information Column

What is in your furniture is as important as how it looks. Last week we discussed the correct proportions of living room furniture in order for it to be comfortable. You remember that it has to give to your weight while constantly supporting you in seat, back and arms. A chesterfield with the right dimensions will do this, providing it is properly sprung and the filling materials used do not break down.

A good spring construction can be achieved in various ways. Vertical coil springs on a webbed base, tied with rope, give a good suspension, but require a certain depth in order to give sufficient buoyance. This limits the designer to bulkier, less slim-lined furniture. Modern engineering has come up with alternative spring constructions which, if properly applied, give every satisfaction.

Horizontally suspended strips of steel in different forms are presently used in most modern furniture. The reputable manufacturer uses sufficient of these springs to assure long-lasting comfort. To cheapen the suite, all one has to do is spread out the springs, which will soon result in the padding slipping between them.

The filling used in living room furniture is also important. If it is made from inferior or reclaimed material, the short fibres will not hold together, which results in breaking down. Soon your suite looks sloppy and wrinkled. Insufficient padding will cause the fabric to wear through.

Next week we will discuss frame construction.

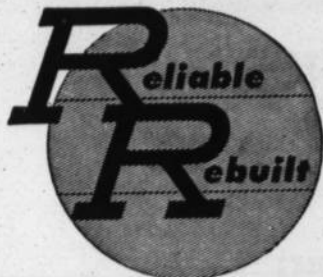

Remember we watch our interests by watching yours.

The CAC convenor read the monthly bulletin which dealt with, know your different cuts of meats and learn proper cooking habits; let our wants be known to the manufacturers of textiles and how women can help with the seasonal unemployment.

As this was the annual meeting, the election of officers took place with the former officers being returned by acclamation, namely: President, Mrs. Bob Hutton; vice-president, Mrs. C. Brown; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. A. Wylie; secretary, Mrs. Robina Hutton; treasurer, Mrs. H. Smith, Mrs. D. Campbell, Mrs. R. S. Irwin.

THE NUISANCE JOB

As soon as possible a child should be taught to wash his own face and hands. He'll probably regard it as a nuisance but he should be trained to understand the hands must always be washed before food is handled. So that he may be able to reach the washbowl, he should have a small sturdy stool on which to stand. Care must be taken to teach him not to turn on the hot water tap if there is danger of his being scalded.

Canada may never need the help that her civil defence is trained to give but in case of national emergency, the skills earned in the training courses could save the lives of families and personal property.

The first real threat of winter arrived on Wednesday night when a fall of snow covered the ground. It is some years since such a long lovely spell of fall weather has been enjoyed, but apprehensions are abroad that it has been too nice and dry for farmers. However past history of prairie weather would prove that lack of rains in June and July during the growing season have a lot to do with whether the grain growers harvest a crop.

asked, "What are you going to do with those?" He replied, "Throw them over the seats of the car to protect the seat covers." No report is available as to the comment of the missus but the Advocate would not likely print it anyway.

Milo-Queenstown W.M.F.
The November meeting of the Milo-Queenstown Lutheran W.M.F. met at the home of Mrs. Mel Schaub in Milo, with eleven members and two visitors in attendance. As the new officers do not take over until the first of the year Mrs. Chester Thompson conducted the meeting.

At the business session it was voted to send $10 to Calgary for the radio fund which is reported to be in arrears. It was decided to purchase a propane cook stove from Mrs. Jack Deitz for use in the kitchen of the church. Mrs. Thompson reported she had written the T. Eaton Co. regarding the price for the stove. This unit should be a real asset to the ladies who will cater for events in the kitchen once renovations have been made.

The church is now moved to the site in Milo and adds considerably to the skyline of the town. Mrs. Jack Deitz reported that Charles Northcott, Sr., had made the cross for the steeple. The secretary was asked to write a note of thanks to the Lions who had given of their time in the running of the concrete for the church. Pastor Foster reported it was hoped to hold services in the church on Nov. 23, and that Sunday School classes were also being planned to commence as soon as teachers could be found. Department secretaries were appointed and these are as follows: Missions, Mrs. N. Foster; charities, Mrs. Mel Schaub; education, Mrs. George Heather; promotion, Mrs. M. Clemmons, and life membership and in memoriam, Mrs. Bob Deitz.

Mrs. Thompson reported that Mrs. Bob Deitz, Mrs. Schaub, Mrs. Jack Deitz and herself, attended the Southern Alberta Workers Conference on Nov. 1, at the Lethbridge "Church of the Good Shepherd," and also gave an interesting report of the conference. Several articles were turned in for the bazaar that was held on Nov. 15, in the IOOF Hall basement and plans were completed for it at the meeting. Pastor Foster conducted the devotional. For the coming year the study will be "The Christ Possessed Life" and a study of Paul's Letter to the Ephesians.

Mrs. Jack Deitz and Mrs. Chester Thompson were assisting hostesses and served a lovely lunch at the close of the meeting. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Jack Deitz and the Christmas pie will be a feature of the afternoon.
